MEMO ENDORSED

July 25, 2011

VIA FACSIMILE (212-805-6326)

Honorable Colleen McMahon
United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Re: Carver and Moore v. CFR2, LLC et al
Docket No.: 1:11-cv-03738-CM
Our File No.: 10190-0103

Dear Judge McMahon:

We represent the defendants in the above-referenced action in which the plaintiffs seek to act as representatives for both a collection action, and a class action, with respect to alleged employment practices. This letter is provided in connection with this Court's Order of July 22, 2011, in which the defendants were advised to inform the Court as to whether they would be opposing the plaintiffs' request to conditionally certify this case as a collective action.

We have conferred with our clients, and they will not be opposing the plaintiffs' request to conditionally certify this case as a collective action.

In addition, the parties have consented to exchange some document discovery and participate in a non-binding mediation in an attempt to resolve this matter early in the litigation. Unfortunately, the parties have been unable to find a mutually convenient time to hold this mediation until the first or second week of November. As such, the parties jointly request that
